Report on Dhanvantari Puja at Shree Siddheshwar College of Physiotherapy, Solapur

Date: 29th October 2024

Location: Shree Siddheshwar College of Physiotherapy, Solapur

On the 29th of October, 2024, the Shree Siddheshwar College of Physiotherapy in Solapur celebrated the auspicious occasion Dhanteras and Dhanvantari Puja. This day holds significant importance in the field of health and wellness, as Dhanvantari, the Hindu god of medicine, is revered for his association with healing, health, and longevity. The puja was conducted with great devotion and enthusiasm, marking an important event for the students and faculty of the college.

The puja was performed by the Principal Dr. Suresh Kumar sir, along with the college's faculty members. The principal of Shree Siddheshwar College of Physiotherapy addressed the gathering. In his speech, he highlighted the importance of maintaining physical and mental well-being, and how physiotherapy plays a key role in ensuring good health. He also encouraged students to follow the path of compassion, healing, and service to society, as inspired by Lord Dhanvantari.
